DIVERSION SCHEME.

All the deeds transferring the necessary land to the United States government for their purposes in malking the long contemplated improvement to Appoint tox River has been deeded to the government, and unless there is something to intervene not now expected the work on the diversion of the river will soon begin. The United States engineors now have the matter in hand, with the idea of starting the work as soon as practicable.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Aug. 27.—
James Burns (colored), who killed Orange Hinks, another negro, at a festival here saturday night, is still at larga. Although the officers have had trace of him several times, they have been unable to capture him.

J. H. Biscoe, member of the House of Delegates of Spotsylvania county and this city, having been renominated for the Legislature, has withdrawn as a candidate for the cirkship of the county. The work of improving the streets of this city, which has been in progress for months, is still progressing slowly, but the work is of a substantial character. It is expected that the improvements will be completed about October 1st.

Active preparations have commenced for the fair of the Rappahannock Valley Agricultural and Mechanical Society, which will be held at this city on September 22d, 23d and 24th. A splendid race programme has been prepared with good purses, and many other attractive features will be added.

BOYDTON, VA. August 27.—George Satterwhite, a negro, stole a horse and bugsy from a Mr. Vaughan, of Clarksville, nesday and sold the turnout for forty-five dollars here to Tom Goode, colored. Mr. Vaughan keeps a livery stable in Clarksville and sent Satterwhite here to bring a drummer. After getting here Satterwhite sold the horse and bugsy, receiving twenty dollars in cash and taking Goode's note for twenty-five dollars. Goode took the horse this to his house to spend the night, and some time during the still hours of that night he stole out of the house, leaving his coat and shices, and left for parts unknown. Yesterday Goode went, in pursuit of the thief and overhauled him at Chase City, where he was arrested by the sergeant of that town.

Town Sergeant E, L Torne went to Chase City lost evening and brought Satterwhite here.

Tom Goode only got back $8.55 and a suit of clothes, pair of shoes and shirt. The clothing and shoes Satterwhite says he purchased with the money he got of Goode. Satterwhite is a black man about twenty-four years old. He confesses to the crime and gave as a reason for his crime that he was hard up and was headed etable. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

D. Gold, who will not stand for re-election.

The candidates are M. J. Fulton, a prominent attorney of Front Royal, and Captain R. S. Parks, of Luray. Both men are able stump speakers, and have made a vigorous canvass of the district.
It looks as if each of the candidates,
would carry his own county, and Clarke county is the battle ground. Mr. Fulton will carry Warren practically solid, and the outlook is that he will carry Clarke by a handsome majority. Page county went Republican last fall by a majority of 420, and although it is a larger county than Warren it has less Democratic votting strength, all of which indicates that Mr. Fulton will win.

The pure election law is being observed, certainly in this part of the district, and so far as can be known, all

ETNA MILLS, VA., August 27.—A big basket plenie and fish fry was held at Garrett's mill pond yesterday and a large crowd came for miles from the surrounding neighborhood.

The mill pond was hauled the evening before and the fish caught, put on fee, log fires built to fry them out of doors.

Experienced old Virginia cooks hurried to cook them.

The ladles brought fried chicken, ham, pickle, fruit, ples and cake and melons.

Mr. J. H. Grovali kindly gave up the grounds and his boats, which were appreciated by ali.

After the fish fry and refreshments a game of base-ball was played by "Mangohick" and "Frog Level." The game
